Mr. Gray,

We are generally available today and tomorrow. What times work for you.

Meanwhile, I am attaching a copy of the memorandum in support of TRO which lays out in detail our case. I have also instructed my investigator, Rufus Jenkins, to send you a secure file transfer link containing all of the exhibits and other pleadings (La Posta TLE should have been served with a disk that also contains the exhibits and other pleadings along with paper copies of the complaint, summons, and TRO).

The temporary seal expires today at 5 p.m., so the docket should be public shortly afterwards.

In terms of extension, what time frame are you requesting?

Subject: FTC v. Lead Express, Case No. 2:20-cv-00840

Mr. Ashe and Ms. Ager,

My firm represents the La Posta Band of Diegueno Mission Indians, and for purpose of litigation, its wholly owned entity, the La Posta Tribal Lending Enterprise ("TLE"). I write in regard to FTC v. Lead Express, et al., Case No. 2:20-cv-00840 (D. Nev. May 11, 2020).

I would like to discuss the case with you, and, with the short timeframe to the May 25, 2020, deadline, the possibility of a modest extension to allow my clients time to consider the allegations in the complaint. And, as a practical matter, as of this morning, the docket remains sealed so I have only had time to review a few of the filings and none of the exhibits or attachments that may have been filed along with the pleadings. Additional time to review the full docket and any evidence would certainly help me advise my clients.

Is there an opportunity tomorrow, Friday May 22, 2020, to discuss the case?

Thank you for your consideration.
